THE SEVENTY-TWO RETURNED WITH JOY AND SAID, "LORD, EVEN THE DEMONS SUBMIT TO US IN YOUR NAME."
- LUKE 10:17

WE ENCOUNTER JESUS – WE GROW TOGETHER IN HIS LOVE

Making disciples who encounter the saving love of Jesus Christ

Growing together by being known, loved and supported

Empowered by the Holy Spirit to worship, Witness, and serve

In today's Gospel reading (Luke 10:1-12,17-20, Jesus appoints 72 disciples to go ahead of him to every town and place he plans to visit, proclaiming that the Kingdom of God is at hand. He sends them in pairs. In the Law of Moses two witnesses were needed for a testimony to be credible. It was probably also a safer way to travel.

Jesus admits it will be difficult, that he is sending them out like lambs among wolves. Yet they are to bring nothing with them, not even a money bag or sandals. They are to greet no one on the way so as not to be distracted from their mission. When they enter a house, their message is simply "peace." The response they will receive may be positive or negative. Either way, they are to know that the Kingdom of God is at hand. They are not to demand special treatment but eat and drink whatever is given them. They are to stay in one house and are not to look around for one that provides better accommodations. They are to heal the sick as a sign that the Kingdom of God is at hand for them. Like Jesus' miracles, healing is a sign of the coming of the kingdom. If the town will not receive them, they are to shake the dust from their feet and move on. Even in the case of such rejection they should know that the Kingdom of God is at hand.

When they return from their journeys, they are rejoicing because their mission has been successful. Demons were under their power because of Jesus' name. Jesus may have sent them out as lambs among wolves, but at the conclusion of this passage he assures them that they have been given power over the enemy and nothing will harm them, not even serpents and scorpions.

A key theme of today's Gospel and last Sunday's Gospel is discipleship—its challenges, its difficulties, and its rewards. Sharing in the mission of Jesus is difficult, but everyone is called to do it, not just some professionals trained for ministry. Even for us today, the harvest is plentiful. We should pray to the master of the harvest to send out workers for his harvest.

Celebrate the Jubilee with Cafod! Are you wondering what the 2025 Jubilee Year is all about? Join us as we explore the biblical background to the Jubilee Year and what the theme Pilgrims of Hope means for us today. The Parish will be holding four sessions on zoom on Wednesday evening in July at 8pm beginning on 9th and for the following 3 weeks. Please let us know if you would like to join. Contact Anne Newling Ward annenw70@gmail.com or speak to Cafod volunteers who will be available at the back of churches the weekend 5th /6th July.

The Catholic charity CAFOD are inviting us to sign a global Church petition calling for action from world leaders. 34 of the poorest countries in Africa spend more on huge debt repayments to banks, institutions and governments than on health or education, with hospitals and schools desperately underfunded.

<https://action.cafod.org.uk/> Next weekend, 5th/6th July in solidarity with people across the world, we will be asking you to sign a petition calling for debt cancellation to restore justice and human dignity.

We have 50 places available for the Diocesan Festival in Ardingly, West Sussex on Saturday 20th September, with coach travel from Our Lady Queen of Heaven Church in Frimley. If you are interested in joining a thousand people from across the diocese in this celebration of the past and to focus on the future mission of the Church in Surrey and Sussex please email Fr Paul. Top class input includes worship led by the 'One Hope Project' beginning at 10.30am, Michelle Moran (from Sion Community), Dai Woodbridge (Bible Society) and Christine Allen (Director of Cafod), and ending with mass with Bishop Richard at 3.30pm.
